RESOLUTION NO. 2010 -02

A RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TOWN OF SILVERTON, COLORADO EXPRESSING AN INTENT TO COMMIT MATCHING FUNDS TO THE REGION 9 COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS' SB 232 GRANT APPLICATION IN FURTHERANCE OF THE "BEANPOLE II" REGIONAL TELECOMMUNICATION INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECT

WHEREAS, the Southwest Colorado Council of Governments has submitted a grant application for S.B. 232 funding for a regional telecommunications infrastructure project involving multiple local government partners; and

WHEREAS, said grant application requires a local match;

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners of San Juan County granted unanimous approval to a similar resolution expressing the County's commitment to this telecommunication improvement effort; and

WHEREAS, The Town of Silverton will benefit from installation of portions of the infrastructure proposed in the regional telecommunications infrastructure project;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE TOWN OF SILVERTON, COLORADO, as follows:

That, subject to formal annual budgetary approval by its Board of Trustees, the Town of Silverton intends to appropriate a total of $18,750 in its 2010-2013 budgets – less up to $3,750 in in-kind contributions – for telecommunications infrastructure, which can be considered matching funds for purposes of the S.B. 232 broadband project.

READ, PASSED AND ADOPTED this 25th day of January, 2010 by the Board of Trustees of Silverton, Colorado.
